The above samples have not been analyzed by the lab.

Just a heads up. We are currently assigning samples to the chemists from the May/June 2011

Have a nice weekend.

Hi Annie:

Hope you survived the Halloween power outage season.

I am looking to see if the analysis has been completed on [REDACTED] Not a super rush as she has just been indicted and is between attorneys right now, but I just didn't want it to slip my mind (which is easy to do these days).

Thanks
